Using FireFox browser. This problem does not exist in Chrome.

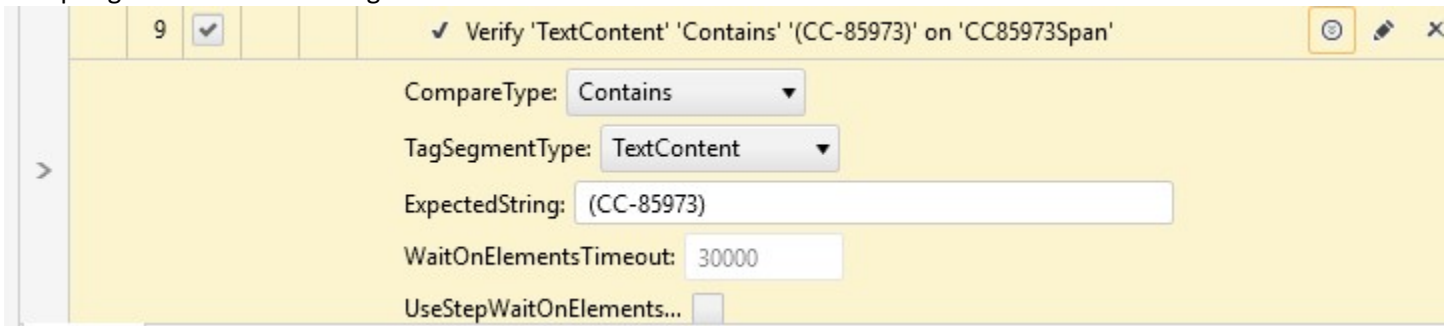

I'm using "Highlight Element" and hovering over certain elements it appears Test Studio is "off by one" meaning it THINKS I'm hovering over the previous element.

In the first screenshot it thinks I'm on "(CC-85973)"

In the second screenshot I moved down and picked up "1966 Ford Mustang".

The DOM in this part of the page follows.

Accepting Test Studio's offering from the first screenshot results in:

This seems wrong. Can you shed more light on it?
